Il Gran Teatro del Mondo*

*from the prologue of the Amphiparnaso by Orazio Vecchi 1597

Workshop for young singers

The workshop Il Gran Teatro del Mondo is conceived as a response to the growing need for specific professionalism for the Baroque repertoire, which has taken on a greater incidence in the calendars of European and Italian theaters.

Il Gran Teatro del Mondo will offer a training course at the end of which each participant will be valued in their own musical / historical / stylistic knowledge and experience that will help them in the development of their professional career.

The 12 selected candidates will be invited eventually to participate in the next productions of Auser Musici

PARTICIPANTS 4 sopranos (M/F)

2 contraltos

2 countertenors
